

United Kingdom

Better transport through technology

Freight Interest Group

presents

Preventing an Urban Delivery Crisis – jointly meeting business and customer needs and Social and Environmental Challenges

An opportunity to hear about how current and future demand for the delivery of goods in urban areas has the potential to lead to major business and sustainability problems, and methods by which this can be mitigated.

Thursday 2nd February 2017

Chairman – Geoff Clarke
ITS-UK, Regional Director AECOM

Programme

- 12:45 – 12:50 Welcome by: Geoff Clarke, AECOM, Chairman of Freight Interest Group
- 12:50 – 13:10 The Challenges and Threats presented by Developments in Urban Deliveries for Companies and Society- Professor Mike Browne, University of Gothenburg
- 13:10 – 13:20 A Snapshot of the Past-Next-day Parcel Delivery Best Practice 10 Years Ago- Geoff Clarke, Chairman, AECOM
- 13:20 – 13:30 The Post Office Perspective-Tom Wasilewski, Head of Proposition and Strategy, Post Office Ltd
- 13:30 – 13:40 e-Retail Urban Delivery- James Roper, Chairman and Founder, IMRG
- 13:40 – 13:50 What have we learnt?- Sam Clarke, Director, Gnewt Cargo
- 13:50 – 14:05 Improving efficiency in last-mile parcel operations – The Freight Traffic Control 2050 project- Professor Tom Cherrett, University of Southampton
- 14:05- 14:30 Tea Break
- 14:30 – 14:50 The Role of Urban Authorities in Preventing Economic, Social and Environmental Problems in Deliveries (Now and in Future) - Paul Strang, Senior Strategy & Planning Manager, Transport for London
- 14:50 – 16:00 Panel Discussion

The Freight Interest Group
Chairman Steven Norris, President of ITS (UK) Hon. Secretary Geoff Clarke, AECOM
ITS United Kingdom, Tel
+44 (0) 20 7709 3003 mailbox@its-uk.org.uk www.its-uk.org.uk